Dear Elisabeth,

Will you join me in returning our country to prosperity? While there is a lot of negativity about our federal government and the political games that are being played in Washington, I believe we are poised to bring this country back to greatness. The formula is simple: True Conservative Values and Real Leadership.

Get Out the Vote!

Here in Indiana, we're holding our next general election on Tuesday, November 8, 2011. It is a very important election. However, most people, even moderately faithful voters, may not share my opinion. Why? Because voters often put a greater emphasis on the more exciting national elections. Next week's election isn't quite as flashy because of its local flavor of town and city counselors, mayors, clerks, and judges, yet that is the exact reason why it is so important.

This is one of those situations, where the opposite of popular thought is

Lugar For Congress

Do You know Jack?

Jack Lugar is a true Hoosier. Deeply committed to Indiana, Jack is an attorney at The Foster Group and a small business owner of Lugar Real Estate, LLC who like Ronald Reagan believes that "Man is not free unless government is limited."

Jack is the only non-politician who is running for the U.S. House of Representatives in Indiana's 5th Congressional District. Jack's campaign is funded in its entirety by fellow Hoosiers and people who want real change.

Jack is actively involved in his true. Popular thought, which results in voters coming out in droves, says that big national elections are the most important. However, it is more likely that the election of local leaders and the decisions they make will actually have a greater impact on the individual citizen.

You've probably heard that, while it may be illogical to play the lottery in the first place, it is even more illogical to play only when the jackpot hits all time highs. The reason for this lies in the fact that even though the pot is bigger, so are the potential number of winners which then forces the pot to be divided into smaller amounts. The same goes for local elections. Your vote has more meaning and impact when there are fewer people voting. Your one vote out of 1000 affects an election's result a lot more than your one vote in 100,000. It just makes sense.

In addition, the local election is the one that is more directly linked to your bank account. The local leaders are the ones deciding how to spend your property taxes, sales taxes, and state income taxes. Moreover, they are the ones deciding whether to raise or lower those taxes. In addition, these are the people making decisions about zoning, building codes, local road development and repair, the size of police and firefighter staffing, how to educate your children, and how to bring in new businesses and jobs to the community. These are pretty weighty issues. Why wouldn't you want a part in choosing these decision makers?

Voting is a right. It is also a responsibility. But one day, if we don't respect that right and responsibility, it may just disappear. Please take the time this coming Tuesday to do your civic duty and have your say in selecting your community's leaders.

Federal Budget

I firmly believe that balancing the federal budget is one of Congress' most important duties, yet it is one most ignored. For the past two decades, Congress has played politics with the budget, simply putting band-aids on the problem until the next election cycle. And then repeating the same thing. This is not responsible government.

I will join those members that fight for accountability in Congress to make change Right Now. I will join Congressman Paul Ryan's legislation that outlines "A Roadmap to America's Future" - which tackles the interrelated problems of health care, Medicare, Social Security, our tax system, and the growing debt.

Committed to limiting my time in Congress to no more than 12 years, I will make the tough decisions in order to return America to the prosperity it once enjoyed.

Jack Lugar is a native Hoosier, raised in Indianapolis in a hard working, middle class family where he was taught the importance of financial responsibility, integrity, a work ethic, standing up for his principles, and accountability. After working in the entertainment industry in Los Angeles, Jack returned to his home state where he and his wife chose to raise their family.

Jack has always brought his principles, passion, and work ethic to his professional life and community. Currently an attorney with The Foster Group, Jack's experience in private practice has exposed him to many of the issues that Hoosiers struggle with on a daily basis. He has also represented a variety of large companies, government entities, and businesses in achieving their business goals.

Jack understands the small business owner. He has been fortunate enough to have his own successes in business, and knows how to effectively operate one. During these difficult economic times, Jack has managed to build and grow a successful real estate brokerage firm in Lugar Real Estate, LLC.

Prior to that he managed his writing career and was represented by The Gersh Agency in Los Angeles. Upon returning to his home state of Indiana, he studied the constitution at IU School of Law, Indianapolis and worked as a lawyer at the Indiana Attorney General's Office. He understands the the need to create jobs, grow our economy, and provide affordable healthcare options.

Jack has taken his commitment to smaller government to the streets in supporting and championing grass root community projects that serve communities more effectively than the government ever could. Jack currently sits on the Board of, and is an active participant with Henry's Hope. This non-profit provides for children with life threatening illnesses. He is also the inspiration for Project: Create, developing artistic educational resources for at-risk youth.

Jack also serves on the institutional review board for Concentrics Research, overseeing the protection of human subjects in medical testing.

Jack believes in, and is committed to, private outreach to solve many of our problems. The federal government cannot effectively solve most of them, and should stop trying.

Changing Course

Jack

Jack has taught as an adjunct professor at Taylor University, his alma mater, on the topic of new media and the law, and offers public seminars focusing on story development, screenwriting, and social media marketing. He earned a degree in Communication Studies from Taylor University and his law degree from Indiana School of Law, Indianapolis. Jack and his wife of 20 years, Elisabeth, have three children; Callista, Ethan, and Conrad. They are active members of Bridgeway Community Church in Fishers, Indiana.

It is time to change course. I'm in this race because my true conservative vision and determination have led me to take action - Right Now, and serve my native State and fellow Hoosiers. I need to gather at least 60,000 votes on May 8, 2012. We can change the course together.

Sincerely,

Jack Lugar

PLEASE DONATE

Please join us on the campaign trail. Together we can make a difference. Your support is extremely valuable in making the changes that are desperately needed. There are many ways to get involved. While financial donations are necessary to run an effective campaign and we would appreciate that assistance, your support by telling your neighbors, putting up a yard sign, hosting a small coffee with friends, or joining us at community events is just as important.

Please contact our office at 317-537-1705, by email at elugar@LugarforCongress.com, or visit our website at www.LugarforCongress.com.

I believe the way to win our future back is to do it together, and be on the ground and meeting with voters. I want to look you in the eye, shake your hand, and hear your concerns and desires for Indiana and this country. Your willingness to help me in this endeavor will truly open the door and provide us a seat at the table in Washington.

Thank you for your support. I look forward to working with you throughout this campaign and in the years to come.
