Jack Lugar For Congress Newsletter
Don't Extend. Just Make a Decision.
Vote Jack Lugar May 8, 2012

Indiana's 5th CD
December 8, 2011

Dear Elisabeth,

Did you hear that Senators Reid and Schumer have vowed to stay in Washington over the holiday break to push for a payroll tax cut extension, saying they'll stay as long as it takes "to get it done?"

Let's not delay but instead make a decision. At some point a decision must be made. Let's put the politicking to the side and make a decision that is in the best interest of the American people.

I vow to represent the best interest of those in Indiana and America as a whole. It's time to elect real leaders who will make the hard decisions for the betterment of our country

Best,

Jack

Payroll Tax Cut Decision

Lugar For Congress

Jack Lugar

Jack Lugar is a true Hoosier. Deeply committed to Indiana, Jack is an attorney at The Foster Group and a small business owner of Lugar Real Estate, LLC who like Ronald Reagan believes that "Man is not free unless government is limited."

"I am running a grassroots effort to bring about that change. My "war chest" is limited, but I have great volunteers who are passionate like me and have contributed a great website and video for this campaign. So while the campaign funds are limited, my vision for the future of Making a decision on the payroll tax cut extension should be made before Congress takes its holiday break. Making this decision should not be taken lightly, however, the decision can and should be made by next Friday. Making hard decisions is not fun, however, they are necessary and the longer they are delayed the harder they are to make.

Recently, Lugar Real Estate, LLC sold my parent's home and within a month my parents had to make some hard decisions on what they would keep, hand down, and donate. They were given a 30-day deadline to go through a lifetime of memories that had been stored in their attic. Because they were downsizing they had to decide what family heirlooms they were keeping or passing on to other family members. Some pieces they sold or donated. These were not easy decisions but with a deadline looming, they gathered their resolve and moved forward. They were exhausted yet they were all moved out and on to their next adventure. While decisions in Congress are on a much grander scale, the point is clear. Leadership is about making tough decisions and then taking action. And that is what our Congress must do.

On a side note, in my parent's move, we did find some family documents that answered the first question I'm asked at every gathering. In fact, if I had a dime for every time I was asked if I'm related to Senator Lugar, I'd be able to self-finance this campaign. Here's the answer. Both my father and Dick Lugar have the same Great Great Grandfather, Joseph Lugar. So, while our relation is distant at best, we are related, and I now have the exact answer.

Back on topic, I expect our leadership to actually lead and stop playing political games. I do not believe in paying for a tax cut with a tax increase or dipping into the Social Security fund. In fact we may be better served to return to the tax credit from the 2009 stimulus which would have a greater benefit to the working poor. Ultimately, Congress needs to set a deadline and adhere to it.

My goal in Congress will be to work hard to represent Indiana: to cut regulations, create jobs, and stop overspending. I will look to the next generation to raise up new leaders and ensure that Indiana has a strong voice in Washington D.C. It's time to start looking to the next generation for the change America needs.

Our Generation is Crucial to America's Future

I am the real deal. I am an everyday American who has worked hard to provide for my family. I have a strong marriage and wife who believes in me, our country, and my desire to return this country to prosperity."

Jack is the only frugal politician who is running for the U.S. House of Representatives in Indiana's 5th Congressional District. Jack's campaign is funded in its entirety by fellow Hoosiers and people who want real change and true hope.

Jack is actively involved in his community and representing his clients. Jack is part of a team at The Foster Group who build relationships with their clients while providing legal counsel. Jack practices employment, education, business, and real estate law; while providing entertainment management services.

Jack will take the same understanding and dedication he has given to his business throughout the years to represent Hoosiers in Congress.

Getting involved in the community, taking care of those who are in need, and participating in government are essential for the betterment of our country. What I have found in the recent months is that those who are 50+ are concerned and involved in our political future, and that many who are 18 - 50 (who aren't employed by a campaign) feel like their contribution won't make a difference so they don't take the time to get involved. This is one of the reasons why we have so few voters showing up at the polls.

Yet, I know that our voice matters and that our generation is crucial to the future of this country. Every person and every vote counts. So, when you think of where to get involved, know that whatever you do, you will be making a decision to shape the future of our country. I would encourage you to get involved and to get involved with my campaign, Jack Lugar for Congress.

We are planning a small gathering in January for those who want to actively participate in Jack Lugar for Congress, a campaign dedicated to Indiana values. Reach out to us if you want to be included at elugar@lugarforcongress.com or by calling my office. We need volunteers who will serve in important positions.

Asking for contributions is not what I like to do, however, that is what gets people elected into office. So, consider a donation to Jack Lugar for Congress this holiday season. Every donation counts, small or large, as we purchase mailers, yard signs, and commercial time.

I believe the way to win our future back is to do it together, and be on the ground and meeting with voters. I want to look you in the eye, shake your hand, and hear your concerns and desires for Indiana and this country.

Your willingness to help me in this endeavor will truly open the door and provide us a seat at the table in Washington.

Join me in my efforts!

Please join us on the campaign trail. Together we can make a difference. Your support is extremely valuable in making the changes that are desperately needed. There are many ways to get involved.

This is Jack Lugar

Jack Lugar is a native Hoosier, raised in Indianapolis in a hard working, middle class family where he was taught the importance of financial responsibility, integrity, a work ethic, standing up for his principles, and accountability. After working in the entertainment industry in Los Angeles, Jack returned to his home state where he and his wife chose to raise their family.

Jack has always brought his principles, passion, and work ethic to his professional life and community. Currently an attorney with The Foster Group, Jack's experience in private practice has exposed him to many of the issues that Hoosiers struggle with on a daily basis. He has also represented a variety of large companies, government entities, and businesses in achieving their business goals.

Jack understands the small business owner. He has been fortunate enough to have his own successes in business, and knows how to effectively operate one. During these difficult economic times, Jack has managed to build and grow a successful real estate brokerage firm in Lugar Real Estate, LLC.

Prior to that he managed his writing career and was represented by The Gersh Agency in Los Angeles. Upon returning to his home state of Indiana, he studied the constitution at IU School of Law, Indianapolis and worked as a lawyer at the Indiana Attorney General's Office. He understands the the need to create jobs, grow our economy, and provide affordable healthcare options.

Jack has taken his commitment to smaller government to the streets in supporting and championing grass root community projects that serve communities more effectively than the government ever could. Jack currently sits on the Board of, and is an active participant with Henry's Hope. This non-profit provides for children with life threatening illnesses. He is also the inspiration for Project: Create, developing artistic educational resources for at-risk youth.

Jack also serves on the institutional review board for Concentrics Research, overseeing the protection of human subjects in medical testing.

Jack believes in, and is committed to, private outreach to solve many of our problems. The federal government cannot effectively solve most of them, and should stop trying.

While financial donations are necessary to run an effective campaign and we would appreciate that assistance, your support by telling your neighbors, putting up a yard sign, hosting a small coffee with friends, or joining us at community events is just as important.

Jack has taught as an adjunct professor at Taylor University, his alma mater, on the topic of new media and the law, and offers public seminars focusing on story development, screenwriting, and social media marketing. He earned a degree in Communication Studies from Taylor University and his law degree from Indiana School of Law, Indianapolis. Jack and his wife of 20 years, Elisabeth, have three children; Callista, Ethan, and Conrad. They are active members of Bridgeway Community Church in Fishers, Indiana.

It is time to change course. I'm in this race because my true conservative vision and determination have led me to take action - Right Now, and serve my native State and fellow Hoosiers. I need to gather at least 60,000 votes on May 8, 2012. We can change the course together.

Sincerely,

Jack Lugar
