Renewal and Change

Lugar For Congress

Jack Lugar

Jack Lugar is a true Hoosier. Deeply committed to Indiana, Jack is an attorney at The Foster Group and a small business owner of Lugar Real Estate, LLC who like Ronald Reagan believes that "Man is not free unless government is limited."

"I am running a grassroots effort to bring about that change. My "war chest" is limited, but I have great volunteers who are passionate like me and have contributed a great website and video for this

Jack is committed to being accessible. Recently, he had the great privilege of speaking with Abdul-Hakim Shabazz of Indy Politics who aired the interview this morning. Click on the microphone to hear the interview.

Shabazz wrote on Indy Politics: "When Hoosiers in the 5th Congressional District hear the last name Lugar, the first name that usually comes to mind is U.S. Senator Richard Lugar, but in this case the candidate's first name is Jack. The attorney and former Hollywood television writer is running for the seat currently held by incumbent Congressman Dan Burton. Lugar is already in a crowded field with much bigger names such as former U.S. Attorney Susan Brooks, former Congressman David McIntosh and former Marion County Coroner and General, Dr. John McGoff.

Lugar sat down and spoke with Indy Politics about his background and the race for Congress in the new 5th District. We also spoke about what he brings to the table and how he hopes to compete with the other political heavyweights.

The entire interview runs about 12 minutes."

Holiday Greetings

Jack had the opportunity to read to his son's preschool this week. You will always find Jack involved in his kids lives and activities from reading at school, to coaching basketball, to spending time with his family hiking different trails in Indy.

Jack Lugar lives in the 5th District and as a small business owner and funds are limited, my vision for the future of this country is rich.

I am the real deal. I am an everyday American who has worked hard to provide for my family. I have a strong marriage and wife who believes in me, our country, and my desire to return this country to prosperity."

Jack is the only frugal politician who is running for the U.S. House of Representatives in Indiana's 5th Congressional District. Jack's campaign is funded in its entirety by fellow Hoosiers and people who want real change and true hope.

Jack is actively involved in his community and representing his clients. Jack is part of a team at The Foster Group who build relationships with their clients while providing legal counsel. Jack practices employment, education, business, and real estate law; while providing entertainment management services.

Jack will take the same understanding and dedication he has given to his business throughout the years to represent Hoosiers in Congress.

professional life and community. Currently an attorney with The Foster Group, Jack's experience in private practice has exposed him to many of the issues that Hoosiers struggle with on a daily basis. He has also represented a variety of large companies, government entities, and businesses in achieving their business goals.

Jack understands the small business owner. He has been fortunate enough to have his own successes in business, and knows how to effectively operate one. During these difficult economic times, Jack has managed to build and grow a successful real estate brokerage firm in Lugar Real Estate, LLC.

Prior to that he managed his writing career and was represented by The Gersh Agency in Los Angeles. Upon returning to his home state of Indiana, he studied the constitution at IU School of Law, Indianapolis and worked as a lawyer at the Indiana Attorney General's Office. He understands the need to create jobs, grow our economy, and provide affordable healthcare options.

Jack has taken his commitment to smaller government to the streets in supporting and championing grass root community projects that serve communities more effectively than the government ever could. Jack currently sits on the Board of, and is an active participant with Henry's Hope. This non-profit provides for children with life threatening illnesses. He is also the inspiration for Project: Create, developing artistic educational resources for at-risk youth.

Jack also serves on the institutional review board for Concentrics Research, overseeing the protection of human subjects in medical testing.

Jack believes in, and is committed to, private outreach to solve many of our problems. The federal government cannot effectively solve most of them, and should stop trying.

Jack has taught as an adjunct professor at Taylor University, his alma mater, on the topic of new media and the law, and offers public seminars focusing on story development, screenwriting, and social media marketing. He earned a degree in Communication Studies from Taylor University and his law degree from Indiana School of Law, Indianapolis. forward to working with you throughout this campaign and in the years to come.

It is time to change course. I'm in this race because my true conservative vision and determination have led me to take action - Right Now, and serve my native State and fellow Hoosiers. I need to gather at least 60,000 votes on May 8, 2012. We can change the course together.

Sincerely,
